

TAHSA TRADE SHOW

Texas Association of Homes and Services for the Aging

51st Annual Meeting & Trade Show

May 17-18, 2010

Westin Galleria, Houston

Who is TAHSA?

The Texas Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (TAHSA) provides leadership, advocacy, networking and education to not-for-profit organizations who provide aging services to Texas seniors. Our members lead the industry in quality and innovative care and services for the aging.

Members include nursing communities, assisted living, retirement living, senior housing, memory care, and home-and-community-based services.

Our Annual Meeting and Trade Show is our most attended meeting for the year and draws nearly 500 attendees from all over the state. This is a great opportunity to reach the leaders and decision makers of the Texas aging services industry.

Why exhibit?

Exposure! Prime contacts! Participation in this one event will give your company access to your target market and the visibility you need to stand out from the competition.
